PRESIDENT LUNGU WELCOMES MPS' PLEDGE TO WORK WITH GOVERNMENT

Lusaka, (Wednesday, 4th September, 2019)----- His Excellency Dr Edgar Chagwa Lungu, President of the Republic of Zambia has welcomed the proposal by two Members of Parliament from the opposition to work with Government to address the food deficit in some parts of the country.

President Lungu has said Honourable Cornelius Mweetwa from Choma Central, and Honourable Ephraim Belemu deserve commendation for their willingness to engage Government over the food deficit.

The President has since advised that the two MPs should engage the Office of the Vice-President on the matter.

The President reiterates that he is willing to work with any Zambian so that Government broadens its pool of solutions to challenges facing the nation.

"I am willing to work with professionals, churches, academics, business people, politicians, and any Zambian willing to complement Government efforts," the President has said.
